PETITIONER'S SUPPLEMENT TO
APPLICATION FOR SUSPENSION
FALLS CHURCH, VIRGINIA 22043
(November 9, 2011)

Petitioner Elaine Mittleman hereby respectfully submits this supplement to the application for suspension. John W. Foust, Dranesville District Supervisor, County of Fairfax, wrote a letter dated October 11, 2011 (attached hereto), to Chairman Ruth Goldway of the Postal Regulatory Commission. In the letter, Supervisor Foust requested that the Commission keep the Pimmit Branch open pending the outcome of the appeal to the Commission. Supervisor Foust pointed out that, if the appeal is successful, the remedy would be difficult to achieve if the Pimmit Branch had been closed on November 10, 2011.

In addition, petitioner Elaine Mittleman submits that there is not adequate alternative access to retail postal services. The Final Determination for the Pimmit Branch states at page 5 that there are three Stamps on Consignment locations within 1.2 miles of Pimmit. Two of the sites listed are Chevy Chase, which is apparently a reference to Chevy Chase Bank. However, Chevy Chase Bank no longer exists. It is doubtful that these sites listed actually do have Stamps on Consignment.

Moreover, the Finance Station at 800 West Broad Street is located in a different community. The Pimmit Branch is located in the Pimmit Hills community of Fairfax County. The Finance Station at 800 West Broad Street is located in the city of Falls Church. These are two different communities. As a result, the Finance Station does not provide adequate alternative access to retail postal services for residents of Pimmit Hills.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Elaine Mittleman
